

Alta Sierra Women's Golf Club was able to gather outside after golf on December 3rd to hand out annual awards. Although the celebration looked different this year there was still an abundance of great golf to reward.

Doreen Lewallen was awarded the Club Championship trophy for the second straight year. Her three-day score of 207 was highlighted by a 79. Andi Davis was the low net winner in the Championship tournament with three rounds of 91.

Annual Awards went to Peggy Hubert, low gross winner and Doreen Lewallen low net. Closest to the pin winners for the year were Doreen Lewallen on hole 12 and Diana Garbin on hole 15. Player of the year award went to Doreen Lewallen and Jean Metz took home the trophy for most improved player.

Jan Core collected over $600 for the Interfaith Food Ministry. Outgoing Captain Julie Harris passed the gavel to Debe Wilson, ASWGC Captain for 2021.

