

Down to the Wire

The ASWGC Club Championship concluded in thrilling fashion on September 29th with Cinnamon Danielson capturing the 2022 Club Championship by one stroke over Runner-up Jean Metz. Low scores were in abundance over the three-day tournament. In addition to Cinnamon's 267 gross score and Jean's 268, Judy Dwelle broke 90 on the final day of competition for the first time in an ASWGC tournament. Judy secured Low Net honors in the First Flight with a 214.

In the Second Flight Andi Davis won Low Gross shooting 293 over the three days. Peggy Hubert won Low Net followed by Jodi Gillespie in second place.

In Tuesday's play Jean Metz was closest to the pin with 8'10". Cinnamon Danielson's 10'2" was closest on the final day of competition.

Thanks to Tournament Chair Doreen Lewallen for her persistence in organizing this annual event.

